

MSc Business with International Management

The MSc Business with International Management has been developed for recent graduates in non-business disciplines who are looking to add a business dimension to their undergraduate specialism. This programme will build both your general business knowledge and understanding, as well as developing the personal skills needed for the wide variety of managerial-level roles available in today's international business environment.

Fee: £8,000 (UK/EU), £13,500 (International)

Entry requirements: Minimum 2:2 honours degree from a UK university or equivalent. Professional qualifications may also be accepted.

English language requirements: IELTS 6.5 (or above) with no single element below 5.5 or equivalent

Mode of study: Full-time classroom

Duration: 1 year

Assessment methods: Coursework and exams

Scholarship or bursaries: Available

Student finance: Available

Payment plan: Available

Starts: January, May, September

Modules:

Developing Global Management Competencies

Strategic Management for Competitive Advantage

Dissertation Preparation and Research Methods

Academic and Professional Development

Developing Global Management Competencies

Global and Transnational Business

Relationship Marketing in a Global Context

The Newcastle Business School Masters Dissertation

Advanced practice option

*The MSc Business with International Management with Advanced Practice is designed for graduates seeking to stand out from their peers. By studying on this course you will study in a subject area that opens up many career paths for you. The Advanced Practice element of this programme will enable you to extend your studies to include an internship or group consultancy project, building your business experience and understanding. Duration: 16-22 months. Fee: £10,000 (UK/EU), £15,500 (International).